Compelling reading for the tween male gamer demographic. . . about a young boy who finds adventure, courage and teamwork away from the computer screen. -- Breitbart Reviews The entire gaming community is in awe of fourteen-year-old Reggie who can take just minutes to destroy the bloodthirsty monster, ECHO-6, in the bestselling video game, ECHOS Revenge. Reggie cant wait to test himself against the games new and improved monster. But theres a glitch in the new release. The manufacturer releases a live version of the monster into the real world and now a 35-foot tall extreme predator clad in impenetrable armor with the power to shape-shift and turn invisible is hunting down every elite gamer who ever defeated it in previous versions. One by one, elite ECHO gamers are disappearing. And now, ECHO-7 is after him. Reggie fears that the monster will also go after his younger brother Jeremy whos been steadily racking up plenty of monster-kill points himself. Determined to keep him safe, Reggie hatches a plot to destroy the monster and save fellow gamers. But can...
