Excerpt: . . . 11 What we find at the present time this quarter - in fact, as of just a couple weeks ago in our latest status survey - we find that small companies throughout the world in this under 2, 000 employee cat-egory are anywhere from not started at all up to approximately the end of level II, which means that they have gotten some great ex-tent of their inventory completed. That is the range throughout the world as far as small companies. The mid-size companies run the range from between being about halfway through their inventory activities up to and including hav-ing as much as ten to 20 percent of their internal systems fixed and have started testing. So it is a pretty wide range on the mid-size companies as well. And the large companies, over 20, 000 em-ployees, run the range from the end of level II, which means that they have basically nearly completed their thorough inventory of business processes as...
