Loose Id, LLC, United States, 2008. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Through the Fire by Liz Andrews. Baldwin Garrett should consider himself a lucky man. After surviving a tour in Iraq he s finally home. But instead, he s riddled with guilt and despair. As a young man he spurned his parents wealth, looking down on their power and influence. Now as an injured Vet he has accepted their help to get the best possible medical care available--an option that wasn t available to his comrades in arms. His guilt has overpowered him to the point he s pushing everyone away. Kena Rutherford was hired by Baldwin s mother to open his house. She unwisely decides to skinny-dip in the pool, only to be discovered by Baldwin when he arrives home unexpectedly early. Although he s a bit surly, she s intrigued by this man who seemingly has everything, but is despondent about his life. She doesn t let their boss/employee relationship get in the way of her speaking her mind. Baldwin finds Kena s sassy disposition and sharp words arouse his desire like no other woman he s ever met. Can she pull him through the fire of his despair and make him see how blessed he truly is? Risen from Ash by Rachel Bo. Damon Wayland enjoyed a heady reputation only a few years ago -- as a Dominant subs would beg for. But his experiences in Iraq have him questioning the pleasure he gained from the edgy lifestyle. Ashland Finn knows his secret, and she has one, too. As an eager sub, she s bound and determined to bring this Dominant back to life! Publisher s Note: The stories in this book contain...
