C., At the National Hotel, January 25, 1859 The Washington City Burns Club celebrated, with marked success, the Centennial Anniversary of the birth of Scotias Bard. No pains had been spared by the committee of arrangements, to have the Celebration at the Metropolis of the United States worthy of the occasion, and they were well-seconded by the landlords of the National Hotel, at which the entertainment was given. A large portion of those present were either brither Scots, or of Scotch descent, but it was not left to them alone to honor the memory of one whose fame is cherished the world over. Men of many nations joined in testifying their admiration for him who had an inspiration for every fancy and music for every mood. The large dining room of the Hotel was decorated with engraved portraits of Burns and of scenes from his poems. Three long tables extended the whole length of the hall, with a cross table...
