Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Whale Fishery and Its Appliances Pursuant to instructions received from the United States OCommissioner of Fish and Fisheries, to take charge of the collection Mid preparation of an exhaustive exhibit illustrative of the whale fishery, to be displayed at the International Fisheries Exhibition of the present year, I proceeded to the principal whaling ports of the eastern coast. The field work was conducted mainly at New Bedford, Provincetown, Nantucket, Edgartown, and New London. The object of my visits being known, the whalemens, agents, owners of vessels, and others interested in this industry, with one accord, offered their services to the Government, and generously responded to its call, in order that the vast machinery of the whale fishery of the United States might be represented in the friendly contest among all the prominent maritime nations of the world. From the fresh material collected on this tour, as well as from objects previously deposited in the Fisheries Division of the National Museum, selections have been made and prepared for final exhibition in London. In the preparation of the whaling craft it has been my desire that the objects should be exhibited as nearly as possible in the same condition in which they are usually placed on whaling vessels. The only exceptions allowed to this plan of operations occur in regard to several objects nickel-plated by one manufacturer, who is anxious to display his goods in an attractive manner. As is well known, the best kinds of wood, rope, iron, and steel are sought by whalemens, and the manufacturers, either through pride or fear of competition, employ the best grades of material, and finish some of their...
