Teresa Rodriguez met an Australian surfer in San Francisco; within months of this chance romantic encounter, she packed up her meager belongings and hopped on a plane to Australia-as a married woman. While things didnt work out with the man, she did fall head over heels with the Land Down Under . . . and with traveling. During her difficult separation, Teresa took to the friendly skies to find some solace, inner peace, and time alone. She spent weeks traveling alone and returned to Australia single and broke, but not broken. The new confidence she gained from traveling shined; once back in Australia, she was signed by a modeling agent and worked on the popular game show, Blind Date.
