Excerpt: . . . showing the half of the building, which it was estimated could be erected for the sum of 1, 500, 000, the limit of cost first established. Following are the extracts from the report prepared by the assistant secretary in charge of the Museum: The plan contemplates a rectangular building about 486 feet front by about 340 feet deep and about 80 feet high including the basement. The building is designed for four floors, and will afford alunit 400, (XK1 square feet of floor space, the first and second floors to be used for exhibition, the basement and upper floor for storage, workrooms, and other purposes necessary to the conduct of a museum. It could le erected in substantial form as a fireproof building for a sum not exceeding 3, 000, 000. The plan has been designed in such a manner that approximately one-half of...
